Video replay details inside.

Enhance your legal analysis and strategic decision-making – and become a more valuable partner to or advocate for your client – by better understanding complex cross-practice issues.

- 6 intensive sessions with concrete advice where employment law intersects with other practice areas – executive compensation, employee benefits, OSHA, bankruptcy, taxation of settlements and awards, and intellectual property.
- Plus 3 fast-paced “10 tips” sessions to provide you with insights from corporate attorneys on contract negotiation, data privacy, and handling government enforcement – a chance for exposure to importable ideas from experienced in-house counsel outside the usual employment-law-CLE circle.
- Walk away with NEW information and resource material.
- Benefit from tag-team teaching that leverages the complementary expertise of the experienced attorney co-presenters – one an employment attorney, the other an attorney in the intersecting practice area.
- Get advanced level education – and answers regarding specific, important issues.
- Learn from – and engage in Q&A with – a talented faculty drawn from both in-house and private practice, plaintiff and defense counsel.
- And more!

Answering Difficult Questions in 6 Areas of Cross-Practice Concern for the Experienced Employment Attorney – Concrete Advice BEYOND the Basics

Each session will focus on a significant set of issues where employment law intersects with another practice area, analyze and provide practice tips for handling those issues and – as applicable – highlight today’s enforcement/litigation concerns in that area.

1 Employee Benefits

9:00 – 10:00 a.m.

- What are the potential risks of having separate benefits offerings for different worker categories?
 - What are the regulatory compliance implications (e.g., IRS, DOL) and private enforcement opportunities (e.g., litigation) when employers reduce the costs of employer-provided benefits (e.g., reducing or eliminating benefits, cost shifting to employees) or when employers make workforce adjustments (e.g., termination incentives, reductions in hours, layoffs, facility closures)?
 - When is a severance “custom” a severance “plan” for ERISA purposes?
 - What are the rules that must be followed in providing benefits information electronically?
- Darcy L. Hitesman
Hitesman and Associates, P.A.;
