GUN/FIREARMS LAW
What Every Minnesota Attorney Needs to Know

This program will provide an in-depth analysis of current and proposed law and case law regarding the carrying, use and restriction of firearms in Minnesota. Analysis will include: the 2nd Amendment, current and proposed gun legislation, important case law, acquiring a permit to carry, where you can carry, restrictions, the appeals process for permitting, "stand ground" legislation, "castle doctrine" analysis, restoration under state and federal law (Minn. Stat. 609.165 & 18 U.S.C. §925(c)), restricting under state and federal law – including domestic, felony, felony indictment, and the day will close with an extraordinary panel of lawyers who've been impacted by workplace shootings – experiences and what has been learned about safety.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to get the most current overview of Minnesota and federal firearms law!
