THE WEBCASTS

Monday, March 1, 2021
12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

Bill of Particulars and Medical Records

The Bill of Particulars is a document, the form of which is defined and explained in Minnesota Statutes section 524.5-121, that includes any documents or information disclosing or pertaining to health or financial information. This webcast will give in-depth coverage to the Bill of Particulars and medical records of the respondent, including what information should be included in the Bill of Particulars and how to file the Bill of Particulars with the court.

– Robert A. McLeod; Best & Flanagan LLP

Monday, March 8, 2021
12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

Pleadings and Orders Under the New Law

This webcast will focus on the pleadings and orders under the new Minnesota Guardianship and Conservatorship statutes, including what should be included in the pleadings, and when and how to file. It will also cover what needs to be included in the court order appointing the guardian and/or conservator.

– Robert A. McLeod; Best & Flanagan LLP

Monday, March 22, 2021
12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

Supported Decision-Making and Less-Restrictive Alternatives

This webcast will look at less-restrictive alternatives and the new supported decision-making statutes, guiding practitioners through what supported decision-making looks like and when there are opportunities for supported decision-making in lieu of or in addition to guardianship. It will also look at what exactly less-restrictive alternatives include and how to outline in pleadings and orders exactly what less-restrictive alternatives have been attempted prior to guardianship.

– Robert A. McLeod; Best & Flanagan LLP

– Anita Raymond, LISW, CMC; Program Director, Volunteers of America

Monday, March 29, 2021
12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

Powers and Duties Under the New Law

This webcast will examine the powers and duties of guardians and conservators under the new Minnesota law. It will cover the powers and duties of a guardian of a minor, a guardian of an incapacitated person, and a conservator, including the general powers, as well as the rights, duties, and immunities of both guardians and conservators.

– Robert A. McLeod; Best & Flanagan LLP

Wednesday, March 31, 2021
12:00 – 1:30 p.m.

Your First Guardianship and/or Conservatorship Case Under the New Law

This webcast will provide attorneys with a comprehensive overview of the new Minnesota Guardianship and Conservatorship laws and guide them through their first guardianship and/or conservatorship case under the new law. It will include in-depth coverage of the most important aspects of the new law and the changes practitioners should be aware of. It will serve as the final webcast in the Minnesota Guardianship and Conservatorship Law Handbook webcast series, and give viewers a wrap-up of the new statutes and best practices for attorneys working in this area.

– Robert A. McLeod; Best & Flanagan LLP

THE DESKBOOK

The NEW Third Edition of the Minnesota Guardianship and Conservatorship Law Handbook with eFormbook includes 15 chapters covering all aspects of guardianship and conservatorship law, updated to cover the 2020 legislative changes. The new edition of the Handbook now includes an eFormbook with more than 140 guardianship and conservatorship forms, drafted by the editor and currently in use by the Minnesota Judicial Branch. The forms are available to download in Word and ready to use.

The Handbook also includes detailed appendices to assist practitioners, including statutory language; a sample client intake form; sample health care directive, adult advanced psychiatric directive and short form power of attorney; and 11 procedural checklists to help insure you do not miss a step in the detailed processes of guardianship and conservatorship practice! The Handbook is also filled with practice tips, examples, and citations to primary and secondary sources for further research.
