Featured Speakers

Attorney General Keith M. Ellison

Keith Ellison represented Minnesota's 5th Congressional District in the U.S. House of Representatives from 2007 to 2019. Before being elected to Congress, Attorney General Ellison served four years in the Minnesota House of Representatives. Prior to entering elective office, he spent 16 years as an attorney specializing in civil-rights and defense law, including five years as executive director of the Legal Rights Center. Attorney General Ellison received his law degree from the University of Minnesota Law School.

Chief William G. Brooks III

William G. Brooks III is the Chief of the Norwood, Massachusetts Police Department and has been a police officer for 40 years. He was a member of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court's Study Committee on Eyewitness Identification and is a member of the SJC standing committee. He also served on a committee at the National Academy of Sciences that issued the 2014 report "Identifying the Culprit, Assessing Eyewitness Identification." He presents nationally on behalf of the Innocence Project and has delivered presentations in 24 states. He sits on the Board of Directors of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy.

Dr. Francis X. Shen, J.D., Ph.D.

Francis X. Shen is an Associate Professor of Law and a McKnight Presidential Fellow at the University of Minnesota, where he directs the Shen Neurolaw Lab. He also serves as Executive Director of Education and Outreach for the MacArthur Foundation Research Network on Law and Neuroscience. Before coming to the University of Minnesota, he taught at Tulane Law School, The Murphy Institute and Vanderbilt Law School, and lectured at Harvard University. He attended college at the Univ. of Chicago. He then earned a J.D. from Harvard Law School and a Ph.D. from Harvard University.
