See Your Colleagues and Friends at Minnesota's Biggest and Best Family Law Event!

Dozens of New Sessions, 70+ Speakers, Time-Saving Written Materials and More!

Attending the 2026 Family Law Institute is the best way to ensure that you are completely up to date on all the latest cases, legislation and other new developments in Minnesota family law. It also provides practical instruction on dozens of important topics, as well as extensive written materials. Check out the detailed schedule in this brochure and make plans to attend this year's Institute.

Great Plenary Topics Plus a Wide Variety of Breakout Session Choices

Plenary sessions include the annual Family Law Update and the 2026 Case Law Update. You'll also choose from 32 sessions across 8 tracks. Select the sessions that best fit your practice needs and goals.

The Eugene L. Kubes Annual Case Law Update

The foundation of the Family Law Institute is the Annual Case Law Update. Editor Michael D. Dittberner and a team of contributors work year-round to summarize important Minnesota Supreme Court and Minnesota Court of Appeals' decisions in family law cases. This year's contributors are Ryan D. Anderson, Seungwon R. Chung, Susan A. Daudelin, Lisa D. Kontz, Zachary A. Kretchmer, and Dana K. McKenzie.

If it's important to your family law practice, you will hear about it at the Case Law Update. The presenters will review cases in these areas:

- Appeals
- Attorneys and Fees
- Custody and Parenting Time
- Child Support
- Spousal Maintenance
- Property
- Procedure and Evidence
- Miscellaneous Issues

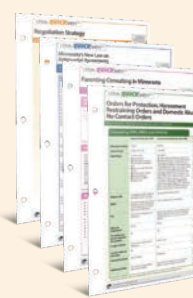

View 5 Free Post-Institute Webcasts – Earn 5 Extra Credits!
